FASHION ICON

1. ☐

Tina always dreamt of becoming famous. One day she was going to work by bus. Suddenly, while she was changing lines, she was stopped by a famous fashion photographer, Carlo Bonetti. He invited her to his studio to take some pictures of her. Tina thought it was a great chance for her.

2. ☐

The photos were great and she started to model in fashion campaigns in Italy. She presented the most beautiful collections in many fashion shows. Then she got offers from foreign designers and for many years she worked at Fashion Weeks in New York, Paris and London. In 2005 she was called the World Fashion Icon of the Year.

3. ☐

Everything was great but one day she broke her leg. She couldn't work as a model for months. She didn't have enough money and had to move to a smaller flat. Her friends had no time to visit her, so she felt sad and lonely. However, she still had the help and support of her family.

4. ☐

When she could walk again, she started to look for new challenges. Her sister advised her to take part in different TV shows or soap operas but Tina's ambition was to perform on the big screen. Her dream came true and she played the main role in one of the most expensive American productions.

5. ☐

Carlo Bonetti saw the film and he was really impressed. He wrote an email to congratulate her. A few years later they got married. Their wedding was a big event and many celebrities took part in it. Now Tina and Carlo have two beautiful children, a boy and a girl.

A TOY BOX

Anna was sick and stayed at home. Fortunately, she did not have to stay in bed, she just took some medicine. But Anna had nothing to do and she didn't like it. She couldn't go to school and no one came to see her.

"Switch on the TV," her mother said. "There's nothing on," Anna said, putting down the book she was reading. "You could play with your hamster," Mum suggested. Anna only gave her a strange look and made a cup of tea for herself. "You should drink juice, it is healthier," said Mum. Anna said nothing.

"OK, put down the cup, take your pullover and come with me." Anna went with her mother to the garage and watched her while she was moving garden chairs, the Christmas tree decorations and the boxes full of clothes out of the way. "What are we looking for?" asked Anna. Finally, Mum found a big old box and carried it to the kitchen.

When she opened it, Anna could not believe her eyes. "This," Mum said, "is a very special box. It was made by your great-grandfather. It has toys inside which people in our family played with when they were kids. There is your grandfather's toy car. And your father's early computer game. And my favourite Barbie doll. You can play with them now. But when you finish, put them back. You can also decide which toy of yours you would like to put in the box for your children and grandchildren to find." "Wow, that's a great idea!" Anna said. "But what should I put in?" "Oh, you have lots of time to think," said Mum.
